

Who Are Your “Who”?

Share your story and let others see how it has been done, is being done and ideas on how to do it...

Please write on a single 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper. Be creative with colored paper, poems, quotes, etc. Then post it on the slatwall in the lobby with a thumb tack—that’s all there is to it. We will rotate as the weeks go by, so come back often to read how God is working in our lives, the community and around the world.

Here are some prompting questions to get you started:

WHO DISCIPLLED YOU?

Use some of the following prompts to write about the person(s) who walked alongside you in one or more stages of your discipleship journey:

- Shared the Gospel and explained why you needed a Savior.
- Showed what it looks like to have a personal relationship with Jesus.
- Modeled what it means to follow/obey/surrender to Jesus as Lord on a daily basis.
- Taught you the rhythms of discipleship (worship, prayer, Bible reading, serving, etc.).
- How did you meet? What brought you together with this person(s)?
- What did your relationship with them look like? Describe your time together.
- In what ways were they intentional about discipling you?
- What was the most influential thing they said or did that impacted your spiritual growth?

WHO ARE YOU DISCIPLING?

Without violating anything that should remain confidential, use some of the following prompts to write about your relationship with someone you are walking alongside on their spiritual journey:

- How did you meet? What brought you together with this person(s)?
- What does your relationship with them look like? Describe your time together.
- In what ways have you been intentional about discipling this person(s)?
- What are some of the subjects/questions that you talk about?
- How have you seen growth/transformation in the person you are discipling?
- What have been the most exciting/the most difficult experiences?
- How has this relationship helped you to mature as a disciple?
- What advice can you share with others about being a disciple-maker?
